

Sowles, Lewis Sowles, Bruce Patterson, Frank Niles, Duncan, Hartley, Giesy, Sinclair, Mark McChrystal, Coleman, Clay, Oglesby, Choate and Rev. Ellis Bishop.

At Luncheon.

Mrs. George Olson gave a very charming luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Atkinson of Denver. The table was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being pink and green, worked out with carnations and roses. There were present Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Albert, Morquist, Mrs. Harry T. Lytle, and Mrs. Arthur Clarke.

Informal Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cutler entertained very pleasantly on Thursday evening. The house was prettily decorated, and dainty refreshments were served during the evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. E. G. Holding, Mrs. N. D. and H. Corser, Miss E. and Miss J. Cosgrove, the Misses Daisy and Babe Dalton, Mr. Corser, Anna McFarlan, Miss Edith Helen Holding, Lillian Hill, A. McIntyre, Francis Carter, Will Wanless, F. C. Lea, David Evert, W. Watson, A. Westman, Robert and Charles Atwood, David Sorenson.

Quiet Wedding.

Miss Ida Beho and Mr. Fred C. Wambolt were married on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Ailie Groff by the Rev. Joel A. Smith. Only the relatives and near friends of the family were present.

Coming Event.

An event for which all society promises to turn out is the concert at the Grand theatre on Wednesday evening for the benefit of Mrs. Major's. The patronesses are Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Mrs. George Downey, Mrs. George A. Lowe, Mrs. A. H. Bird, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Edwin Holmes and Mrs. Frank Jennings.

The ladies have spent a great deal of time on the arrangements, and the programme will be one of unusual interest.

Watermelon Party.

Miss Emma Shinn was the hostess of a very pleasant watermelon party on Monday evening. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion, and all voted it an entire success.

Mrs. Lyman Entertains.

On Thursday evening Mrs. M. Lyman and daughters, Miss Hattie, Lulu and Anna, entertained in honor of Misses Maggie and Ellen Dolan of Blackfoot, Ida. Those present were: Mrs. Mahoney, Miss Almond, Miss Duncan, Miss May Duncan, Miss Alice Foster, Miss Bowen, Miss Hart, Miss Phoebe Foster, Miss Lulu Crane, Miss Lena Crane, Miss Lulu Crane, Miss Anna Haggerty, Miss O'Connell, Mr. Fred Crane, Mr. Clyde Stanley, Mr. Leo Postner, Mr. Will Howe, Mr. Will Hill, Mr. Darneque, Mr. Ralph Tribe, Mr. Leroy Lyman, Mr. Herbert Lyman, Mr. W. G. Hampton, Mr. Groshell, Mr. Chambers.

Musical.

Mr. Frank W. Penrose gave a very pleasant musical Thursday evening in honor of Mr. E. A. Childs, who leaves shortly on a mission to Great Britain. The guests were the Misses Louie Thomas, Lulu Penrose, Martha Childs, Symons, Maud Symons and Florence Symons, and Messrs. Penrose, Childs and Wallace.

Afternoon Wedding.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Claire Whitehead, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Whitehead, and Mr. Alex. H. Birrell were married. Dr. James E. Talmage officiating. The happy couple left in the evening for a trip east.

Progressive Society.

The Progressive society held its regular session on Friday evening at the First South street. An instructive program was rendered, consisting of a reading by J. Johnson, a piano solo by Miss Xenia Druce, a reading by Fred L. Schroeder, a recitation by Miss Hattie Currier, reading of the society paper, Progress, by Rufus D. Johnson, editor. The programme was closed by an informal discussion of the question: Resolved, That the United States should Aid in the Division of China. The negatives won. The society will meet next Friday evening at the home of the Misses Brown, 644 South Third West street.

"Opal Club."

The officers of the Opal club have arranged a trolley ride for the members of the club next Wednesday evening Aug. 29. Cars will leave the Theatre corner at 7:45 sharp. After the trolley ride the club will go in a body to the Salt Palace for a short dance. All expenses will be met from the club treasury. It is expected that every member will be present, as a very enjoyable time is expected.

Pleasant Reception.

A very pleasant reception was given Miss J. S. Holding Saturday the 18th, at the residence of Miss J. N. Papineau, No. 716 West First South street. Being the anniversary of Miss Holding's birth, a lovely lunch was served, along with music and visiting filled up a most enjoyable evening. A surprise in the shape of some very lovely presents was received by Miss Holding, which in the years to come will often remind her of the kindness and good wishes of her new found friends during her short stay in the valley of Salt Lake, where she hopes to make her home for some time.

Among those present were Dr. and Miss Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Papineau, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Holding, Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. E. G. Holding, Mrs. N. D. and H. Corser, Miss E. and Miss J. Cosgrove, the Misses Daisy and Babe Dalton, Mr. Corser, Anna McFarlan, Miss Edith Helen Holding, Lillian Hill, A. McIntyre, Francis Carter, Will Wanless, F. C. Lea, David Evert, W. Watson, A. Westman, Robert and Charles Atwood, David Sorenson.

Social Chat.

Judge Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Clement and Mr. McDonald of New York are in Idaho on a fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holmes will occupy the Saltbury home this fall.

Miss Sara Reed Park leaves this week for Stanford.

Miss Daisy Redwood has issued invitations for Tuesday evening.

Miss Annie Adams and Miss Evelyn Thomas have gone to Bear River.

Mrs. Hugo Druehl has gone to Mammoth.

Miss Eloise Sherman has gone to Iowa.

Mr. John McChrystal and family have gone to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Woodruff, Miss Judge and Miss Blanche Burke are spending a few days at the Silver King mine.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears and Miss Edith Sears will leave Wednesday for Seattle, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Ritter and Mr. L. E. Ritter, Jr., have returned from the Yellowstone.

Mr. Jackson McChrystal and Mr. Edward Packard have gone to Michigan.

Miss Edith Hale leaves this week for Stanford.

Miss Lorie Odell and Miss Kathleen Anderson have gone to Brighton.

Mrs. D. S. Spencer and family return from Wasatch today.

Miss Alma Cheney of St. Louis is the guest of Mrs. John C. Dugan.

Mrs. M. Cohen has returned to her home in St. Louis.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Miriam Brunlee of this city and Mr. Harry Codiner of Laramie. The marriage will take place next month.

Mrs. L. E. Hall and son have gone to Los Angeles.

Dean Edgie and family have gone to Parley's Canyon for a week's outing.

Mrs. Benedict, Mrs. W. S. Meeks, Miss Maud Potter, Miss Clarie Clawson and Dr. Chauncey Benedict have gone to Brighton.

Judge and Mrs. W. H. Kean of Tacoma are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Vogeler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Price have gone to Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Clift have returned from California.

Mrs. Jane Kesler and her daughter have returned from California.

Miss Inez and Lila Trent are expected home from a two years' tour in Europe early in September.

Dr. E. A. Tripp and David C. Dunbar have gone to Idaho on a fishing trip.

Mr. Andrew Howat has gone to Salt Lake.

Mr. Harry Atkinson and Mr. Waldemar Young leave this week for Stanford.

Mrs. Rachael Miller and daughter are expected this week from their visit to Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey are spending a few days in Brighton.

Mr. Milton Sprague leaves this week for San Francisco.

Mrs. Singiser and Mrs. Rathman are at the Knutsford.

Mrs. A. G. Andrews is at home to her friends at 184 G street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holmes have returned from Park City.

Mrs. Joyne and family and Mrs. Joseph Jennings and family return from Brighton on Monday.

Mrs. L. C. Trent entertains today at dinner in honor of the Rev. David Utter of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Russell left for the east yesterday.

Rev. David Utter leaves tomorrow for Denver.

The Poet's Round Table will meet on Monday with Mrs. Bradley at 51 South Second West.

Mrs. Urquhart Lee will arrive in the city Thursday, and will be the guest of Mrs. W. A. Nelden. Mrs. Lee is one of the authorities in the east on parliamentary rules and will give a talk on this subject on the opening day of the Ladies' Literary club.

Miss Lawson has returned from Chicago and opened her studio at 129 North Second West.

Miss Grace Smith has gone to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McGregor of St. Louis, who have been visiting Mrs. McGregor of this city, returned home last week.

Mrs. S. F. MacFarlane of Los Angeles was the guest of Mrs. W. L. Jones at the Cullen last week.

The U. W. P. C. will hold a meeting at the Woman's Exponent office, Aug. 22.

Mr. Mike Varian is back from the Snake river, where he shot a coon and caught 3,000 fish.

Miss Vera Shaver entertained a few of her friends at a luncheon last Thursday evening. The invited guests were: Clifton Marling, Florence Sears, Kate Groo, Jennie Tuttle, Adelaide Odell, Hancy and Oranna Pierce.

Miss Elizabeth Ainge of Spanish Fork is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Low, 764 Third street.

The Progressive society spent Thursday evening very pleasantly at Salt Lake.

The Junior Section of the Council of Jewish Women contemplate giving an apron sale in the garden of Mrs. E. Kahn's residence, on Thursday evening, Aug. 30, to which the public is cordially invited.

Mrs. E. Piska, a prominent society woman of Denver, will arrive in the city today, and will be the guest of Mrs. J. E. Bamberger.

OGDEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Ogden, Aug. 25.—The cool weather has brought most of the camping parties in from the mountains and indoor affairs will soon be more in order. The fall dancing season will soon begin. "Society night" and Ladies' day at Glenwood were well attended and the dancing in the evenings furnished amusement for many.

The Columbia club boys are planning a number of social events for the coming season.

Jake Ellis and family of Cheyenne were visitors in Ogden during the week.

Samuel Ellis of Cheyenne spent two days of this week visiting in Ogden, going thence to Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Coulter have returned from Oregon after six weeks of camp life.

Miss Lettie Herrick very pleasantly entertained a number of her lady friends Thursday evening. Those present were: Mesdames J. L. Herrick, F. J. Stevens, Misses Violet Wendelboe of Logan, Savel of Salt Lake, Jane Herrick, Ruby Stevens, Josie Zitzman, Minnie Zitzman, Nettie Herrick, Mada McQuarrie, Mamie McQuarrie, Imogene Wilson, Cora Wilson, Ida Scowcroft and Veda Littlefield.

Mrs. W. F. Beer of Salt Lake is the guest of Mrs. L. Charter.

Mrs. J. B. Asch of South Omaha is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Mel-han.

E. E. Stewart left for the north last Monday.

Joseph Scowcroft left Monday evening for New York.

Miss Violet Wendelboe of Logan is the guest of Miss Jane Herrick.

F. E. Worth and mother of Indianapolis, Ia., were in Ogden last week visiting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Beghtol of Holdrege, Neb., are the guests of their son, C. A. Beghtol and family.

Will Browning, Ray Boyle and Frank Clark returned Wednesday from Yellowstone Park.

Mrs. Toler and daughter, Flora, departed Tuesday evening for an extended visit to Chicago and other eastern cities.

Miss Maud Lewis was a Salt Lake visitor last week.

Lester S. Scoville departed Wednesday evening for Chicago and other eastern cities on a business trip.

Miss Zella Johnson is the guest of Miss Milla Stevens.

Miss Maud Littlefield of Morgan left Thursday for home, after spending about a week visiting in Ogden and Salt Lake.

Mrs. A. U. Hosson returned Wednesday from Oxford, Ida., where she has been for about three weeks visiting relatives.

Miss Lucy Horing left Friday for Europe on an extended trip.

Bert Richey, Jr., returned Thursday morning from a three months' visit in Iowa.

Mrs. Lana Catherwood, daughter of Mrs. Emma Schaab, and son Roy of Pappallion, Neb., arrived in Ogden Thursday. They expect to remain here about two weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Carroll left Thursday morning for Blue Creek, Utah, and Te-com, Nev., where she will visit with friends.

James Burton, M. O. Corey, Henry Stevens and Stanley Dee are expected home about Sept. 1 from Yellowstone park.

Miss Lulu Peery entertained at a dancing party Monday evening in honor of Miss Myrtle and Stella Harmon of Missouri. Among those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Joe Peery, Horace Peery, Misses Scofield of Omaha, Lettie Richards, Pearl Richards, Kate Carmahan, Mamie Harrington, Phoebe Houtz, Margaret Buchmiller, Neil Healy, Messrs. Barriman of Omaha, Brough, Bert Adams, Lester Scoville, Gus Wright, Roy Muchmiller, Joe McFarlane, Harold Peery, Harold Eddredge of Salt Lake.

Miss Addie Roschick of Logan, who has been visiting Miss Emilie Tanner, left for her home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cave sailed on the New York this week from England and will be home in about a week from their tour in England and France.

Mrs. T. C. Foley is visiting relatives of Mr. Foley in Omaha and will return with her husband, who was expected to arrive in New York today en route home from Europe.

The Philharmonic society held its weekly meeting Monday evening at the home of Miss Jessie Lewis. The next meeting will be held Monday evening at Glenwood.

Mrs. A. A. Miller of Grand Junction is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. W. Ellis.

Mrs. E. C. Helfrich of Evanston is an Ogden visitor.

Mrs. Thomas Booth and daughter left Saturday morning for San Francisco.

Miss Lettie Taylor entertained a number of her little friends Friday afternoon at her home.

Smurthwaite, Lucile Packard, Alice ent birthday. Games were indulged in and delicious refreshments were served. The guests were: Misses Florence Gray, Ollie Cannon, Eva Brown, Birdie Wetherpoon, Gena Wetherpoon, Georgia Smurthwaite, Constance termoon, in celebration of her eleventh birthday. Helen Taylor, Viola Taylor and Harmon Peery.

Miss Fanny Graff of Evanston, Wyo., is the guest of Miss Margaretta Long.

Pearl Neilson returned Wednesday to Carlin, Nev.

Mrs. W. O. Jones and Miss Zella Elias of Beaver, Mo., left last evening for Salt Lake.

Miss Alta Ballantyne and C. V. Zinn were united in wedlock Friday by President L. W. Shurtliff at the home of Mrs. Richard Ballantyne. They will reside in Ogden, and hosts and friends join in wishing joy to the young couple.

Miss Maggie Steele of Wells, Nev., is the guest of Mrs. Millsap.

Mrs. Lanphere and daughter of Chicago are visiting W. G. Kind.

Miss Ethel Wattis entertained a few friends Friday evening at her home on Twenty-eighth street.

A large number of prominent clubwomen greeted Dr. Hilman Brough on the occasion of his lecture at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Fleschner on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Fletcher being called to the chair, introduced Dr. Brough in a few warmly appreciative words. His subject was "Woman in History," and his address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

PROVO.

(Special Correspondence.)

Provo, Aug. 25.—The Misses Leo Daniels and Violet Martin gave a very pleasant "hay rack" ride and watermelon feast at the Provo lake resort Monday evening in honor of Miss Pearl Daniels. The evening was spent in dancing, music and boating. It required two large four-horse hay wagons to carry the party and merrymakers to and from the resort. Miss Annie West of Bushnell, Ill., and Miss Ruby Christensen of Provo, entertained the party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.

The party in the pavilion with choice piano renditions. George Crosby of Rangutech undertook to render a vocal solo, but strange to say, the light address was an impassioned tribute to noble womanhood throughout the ages. It was a most eloquent lecture, interrupted by frequent applause, and was, all in all, such a treat as Ogden club women rarely have an opportunity to enjoy.